Family tree for Alexander Whitecross Harkness 5 gen

5 Generations

William Harkness
w. 1806	William Harkness
Margaret Aichison	Shoemaker	1
Father: Robert (weaver)	(1807-1878)	William Harkness
Robert Reid	m. 1833	Iron Dresser	1
(Carter)	Jane Reid	(1834 - aft 1880)
Mary Miller	(abt. 1807-1887)	m. 1857
	see attachment		William Harkness
			Jewel Case Maker
	Peter Hunter, seaman		(1805-1906)
	m.1822		m. 1880
-	married Tingwall, Shetland	Lillias Hunter	2 Northumberland Place
Petter Goudie (seaman)	married 19 Nov 1822	(b. 1837 d. aft 1880)	22 years
m. 1800	Lillias Goudie	born Lerwick
Ann Blance	d. 1893 (92 years)		Children:
married Shetland	died Lerwick, Shetland.		1887	Alexander Whitecross Harkness
Tingwall, Whiteness		_	John Picken and	b. 1885 m. 1915 d. 1928
	Alexander Whitecross		Harry Reid	electrician
	Carrier			married to Georgina Hume
	m. 1816	James Whitecross	William died in 1906	Only child - my father
James Nisbet		Seaman, sailmaker	at Bangour Village (hospital?)	A.W Harkness born at labourer	Marion Nisbet	m. 1845	after 3 years of paralysis	134 Gorgie Road
	m. south Leith?	34 Carnegie Street		still living there in 1925
		also engine keeper	Isabella Whitecross	valuation roll (1858-1945)
	John Picken		169 Pleasance	died at 134 Gorgie Rd
	Clockmaker		21 years	1928
		Margaret Picken	warehousewoman	44 years old
		8 Gilmour St., St. Cuthberts		pneumonia
	Eliza McGill	d. 1891	Children:
		aged 75 years	Harry Reid (11 years)
		informant son-in-law	died at 22 Comely Bank Place
		William Harkness	1898.
A Marion Nisbet was born		10 North Richmond Street

in 1740 Kirkwall, Orkney to a James Nisbet and Ann Aguir - but this is not the same James Nisbet or Marion nisbet as the above because of the dates Died at 18 Eyres Place 87 years old Witness James Harkness 27 Comely Bank Road

Daughter Margaret Picken born 1890 10 North Richmond Street

John Picken didn't live so long poor soul
One can't help but draw a parallel to the Covid pandemic
Many of these children dies from lung infections
So John Picken had 'bronchitis'
He died in 1888 - I think it says 7 months old.
They also had son James
My father's uncle and the father of my second cousin James